The same rules for dress apply for the retreat as do at teen-week. Shorts are allowed, but must be no shorter than within 2 inches above the knee. Shirts must have sleeves. No food in the cabins. No radios or other electronic equipment. Be sure to bring a sleeping bag and some warm clothes. The nights can be kind of chilly. Bring what you need for a shower or two.

NO GUNS, TOBACCO, ILLEGAL DRUGS,
ELECTRONIC DEVICES, OR FIRE-WORKS.

Be sure to bring your Bible.

The cost is $35 per person. We will not have a canteen. Gary Clark is in charge of our meals and will do awesome as usual to keep us fed. The fee is used to pay for food, paper goods, t-shirts, and the nightly camp rental fee. The rest is donated to the camp to help fund specific projects. A few years ago we donated enough to almost cover the entire expense of the amphitheater. In the past we have donated over $14,000 to camp. We also use some of the money to send flowers to funerals or make other donations for those of our camp family. We are planning on this being a truly awesome weekend for all who attend, and it just won't be the same without you.

What You Need to Know

This year's retreat deals with "What You Need to Know." To live a productive and fulfilling life as a Christian you need to know as much as you can about the five S's: Sin, Salvation, Sanctification, Sacrifice, and Service. This weekend will provide you with a better understanding of your life as a Christian, so you can better share it with others. We hope that you will join us!

Our Speakers:

Friday Devo - Ryan Scherer
(Sin)

Saturday A.M. - Bill Wade
(Salvation)

Saturday P.M. - Josh Herndon
(Service)

Saturday Devo - Neal Mathis
(Sacrifice)

Sunday Service - Austin Johnson
(Sanctification)

Here's the Plan:

11:00 Night Time Devotional

Sunday: (September 18)

The Retreat is open to ALL campers from WKYC Teen-Week 2011 and the rest of the world. You are invited, and yes, even encouraged to bring a friend; just make sure they send in an application.

We understand that there are many ballgames and other activities going on at retreat time. If you can't come until late Friday night or early Saturday morning, let Ryan, Neal, or Austin know so we can wait up for you. If you have to leave early, we will have to hear it from your parents.

There will not be any visitors allowed until worship services on Sunday morning. Parents are invited to come and worship with us!

Our focus is to make the Teen Week retreat a time of spiritual development that will help each of us to grow closer to God and one another. Come be with us as we honor God through singing, praying, Bible study, and fellowship.
